Lehman Today

Lehman College, a senior college of the City University of New York, is located on a beautiful 37-acre campus in the northwest Bronx. With almost 13,000 undergraduate and graduate students and a broad range of academic offerings, Lehman prides itself on its excellent faculty and highly satisfied, successful students that are empowered, engaged and educated. Our students are global citizens and speak more than 90 languages. READ MORE

Lehman in the News

Lehman School of Education Rated One of America's Best Programs

READ MORE

Riverdale Press: You're Gonna Hear Them Roar

READ MORE

Biochemistry Student Wins American Chemical Society Fellowship for Innovative Work

READ MORE

Featured Events

MAY 19	Third Annual Global Citizenship Gala
MAY 24	Spring Leadership Conference Secretary of State, Rossana Rosado, Keynote Speaker
MAY 25	Freshman New Student Orientation
MAY 28	Undergraduate Information Session

VIEW ALL UPCOMING EVENTS

Take the Virtual Tour

SCHEDULE A CAMPUS VISIT

Featured Video

MORE VIDEOS

Lehman Stories

MORE LEHMAN STORIES

College Notices

- 2016 Commencement Ceremony
- CUNY Health Alert: Zika Virus Links
- Emergency Closing Notifications (PDF)
- The Lehman Value (PDF)
- Prioritization: Advancing the Vision, Affirming Our Values
- Celebrating Honors Students at Lehman

2016 Commencement Ceremony

COLLEGE NEWS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

Lehman by the Numbers

With more than 60,000 alumni and 12,000 students, Lehman College serves the Bronx and the region as an intellectual, economic, and cultural center. With enrollment of 10,768 undergraduate students and 2,199 graduate students, we served 12,967 students. Degrees Awarded: (AY 2015-16) 1,783 Bachelor's Degrees & 721 Graduate Degrees.

97 Undergraduate & Graduate Degrees Offered

#3 "Best Bang for the Buck" in the Northeast

#8 Best Online College in New York

90 Languages Spoken on Campus

VIEW ONLINE FACTBOOK