The new Lehman General Education Language Requirement is 6 credits for all students not entering with an Associate’s Degree.

NEW LEHMAN GEN. ED. LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT FLOWCHART

Student history

- Matriculated in Fall 2013 or beyond
- Transferred into Lehman without Associate’s Degree in Fall 2013 or beyond
- Matriculated/ transferred into Lehman without Associate’s Degree before Fall 2013

NEW LEHMAN GEN. ED. LANGUAGE REQUIREMENT (6 CREDITS TOTAL)

What level of language was the student placed in by placement exam or by a Lang. Dept. advisor?

- 111 or 113
- 112 or 114
- 201 or above

Student takes:

- 1st semester: 111 or 113
- 2nd semester: 112 or 114
  = 6 credits

- 1st semester: 112 or 114
- 2nd semester: 201
  = 6 credits

- 1st semester: 201 or higher course
- 2nd semester – student choice:
  1 established “Foundation Course”
  = 6 credits

Did the student manually opt into the new 2013 Gen. Ed. program?

- YES
  Student follows pre-2013 (old) Language Requirement
  202 or 300-level

- NO
  Student takes:
  1st semester: 201 or higher course
  2nd semester – student choice:
  1 established “Foundation Course”
  = 6 credits

* Established “foundation courses” that can replace the 2nd 200- or 300-level language course are: ENG223, ENG 226, ENG 227, HIS 240, HIS 246, HIS 249, PHI 169, PHI 170, PHI 171 and POL 229.