The Office of Financial Aid will be holding workshops that will provide information on how you can “Stay Ahead”.

1. Financial Aid 101: Everything you need to know about Financial Aid
   Sessions will cover: when and how to file FAFSA, TAP, Scholarships, and Work-Study applications; avoiding common mistakes; what to apply for; ensuring aid has been awarded and applied to your semester bill.
   - Wednesday, February 15th 3:00pm-4:00 pm; Library - Computer Lab B27B, Basement
   - Monday, February 27th 3:00 pm–4:00pm; Library - Computer Lab B27B, Basement
   - Monday, March 13th 5:00pm- 6:00 pm; Library- 226A Fine Arts Classroom, 2nd floor
   - Wednesday, March 28th 3:00 pm- 4:00 pm; Library - Computer Lab Room B27B; Basement
   - Monday, April 2nd 3:00pm-4:00pm; Library - Computer Lab B27B; Basement
   - Wednesday, April 18th 5:00-6:00pm; Library - Computer Lab B27B; Basement

2. How to Apply for Federal Direct Loans and/or a Private Loan
   This seminar will discuss Federal Direct Loan and Private Loan eligibility, borrower responsibilities, and loan repayment options.
   - Tuesday, February 21st 3:00 p.m- 4:00 p.m; Room 226A, Library-Fine Arts Classroom, 2nd floor
   - Monday, March 19th 5:00 p.m- 6:00 p.m; Library- Computer Lab B27, Basement

3. What Financial Aid is available for Graduate Students??
   This seminar is for aspiring/current graduate students seeking federal assistance and scholarship opportunities.
   - Tuesday, April 17 3:00pm- 4:00pm; Room 226A, Fine Arts Classroom, 2nd floor Library
   - Tuesday, April 24th 5:00pm-6:00pm; Room 226A, Fine Arts Classroom, 2nd floor Library

“Like” us on Facebook: www.Facebook.com/LCfinaid

Follow us on Twitter: @LCFinAid