

ACTIVISM IN ACADEMIA III

#ActivismInAcademia

#CUNYactivism

#LehmanEnglish

An interdisciplinary, day-long symposium discussing the value of political and apolitical work—in our classrooms, on our campuses, and in our scholarship—as it relates to activism within underrepresented communities.

COORDINATORS: Dhipinder Walia & Olivia Loksing Moy (CUNY-Lehman)

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10, 2019

10:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Martin E. Segal Theatre, CUNY Graduate Center
365 5th Avenue, First Floor, New York City

FEATURING

“Black Men and the Fleeting Pursuit of Relaxation”

“Sexual Assault by Federal Actors, #MeToo and Civil Rights”

“The Ecology of Memes”

PANELS

- 10:00 a.m. Social Justice through Image, Movement, and Melody
- 12:30 p.m. Diversifying and Decolonizing the Professoriate
- 2:00 p.m. Perspectives from the Pipeline: Student Roundtable
- 3:30 p.m. #MeToo Evolving

SPEAKERS

Eugenia Zuroski (McMaster University) ■ Jennifer Rhodes (Columbia University) ■ Marco Ramírez Rojas (CUNY-Lehman)
Mario Moore (Princeton Lewis Center for the Arts) ■ Afrodesia McCannon (New York University) ■ Makeba Lavan (CUNY Graduate Center)
Manu Samriti Chander (Rutgers-Newark) ■ Wendell Cooper (CUNY-Lehman) ■ Julie Goldscheid (CUNY Law School)
Devin Griffiths (University of Southern California) ■ Vani Kannan (CUNY-Lehman) ■ Johanna Folk (University of California-San Francisco)
Hardik Yadav ■ Javiera Morales-Reyes ■ Jennifer Chang ■ Sharon Lee ■ Alexis Martinez ■ Shyrlene Hernandez ■ Ashley Davis (Lehman)

---

Please find our full program and more information about our panelists at:

<http://cuny.is/activism>

---

Sponsored by the Center for the Humanities at the Graduate Center, CUNY; CUNY School of Law; Publics Lab; the Lehman College Department of English; and the Lehman College City and Humanities Program.

CUNY SCHOOL OF LAW

Publics
Lab

