Description of Services Provided

Attendees can expect to meet with an attorney or paralegal for a free 45 minute consultation on:

- Eligibility and application assistance for Deferred Action for Childhood Arrival (DACA), citizenship and green card renewals
- Eligibility for other immigration benefits, family based green card petitions, humanitarian-based immigration programs such as Special Immigrant Juvenile Status (SIJS), asylum, and U-Visa/VAWA (special immigration programs for victims of domestic violence and other crimes).
- Representation at deportation proceedings also available

After your consultation, you will be provided information about your immigration options.
