

Concerned Faculty, Students and Staff of Lehman College, CUNY Present:

Historical and Contemporary Issues Related to Racism in Education and Society: A Dialogic Event

Keynote by Shelly Eversley, PhD
Associate Professor of English, Baruch College CUNY
“How to Save Yourself from Others: Lessons Learned from School”

Panelists include Lehman’s brilliant faculty from Africana Studies and the School of Education:

Mary Phillips, PhD Mark Christian, PhD Rosa Rivera-McCutchen, PhD LeRonn Brooks, PhD

Thursday, March 16, 2017

11am to 1pm

Lovinger Theatre, Lehman College

Facilitated by Gillian Bayne, PhD

Associate Professor & Coordinator, Graduate Program in Science Education