

Research Opportunities for Faculty and Students

The Lehman College Student Research Advisory Board (SRAB) invites faculty to submit a proposal for the CUR Undergraduate Research Programs Conference highlighting successful programs and processes for undergraduate research and creative inquiries. Proposals are due February 19.

(<https://www.cur.org/what/events/conferences/urpc/2019/>).

SRAB invites faculty to support student proposal submissions for the SUNY Undergraduate Research Conference. It is a wonderful opportunity for students to gain valuable experience presenting work and networking with peers. If you are supporting a student who is submitting a proposal, please let us know -- we are here to help! SRAB Student Travel Stipends are available. Proposals are due March 8.

(<https://www.suny.edu/surc/>).

SRAB presents the Lehman's 11th Annual Student Scholars Conference on April 15, 2019. Please encourage your students to submit a proposal to present their original research and creative works. If you are supporting a student who is submitting a proposal, please let us know -- we are here to help! Proposals are due March 29.

(<https://tinyurl.com/SRAB2019>)

Funding to support faculty/student research collaborations and student conference presentations is available! For more details, contact: Justine McGovern, SRAB Chair, Justine.McGovern@Lehman.cuny.edu.