

A Conversation With
Dr. Sara Goldrick-Rab
Addressing Students' Basic Needs

Wednesday, May 30th, 2018
10:00 am - 11:00 am
Lehman College, Music Building, Recital Hall 306

Dr. Goldrick-Rab is Professor of Higher Education Policy & Sociology at Temple University, and Founder of the Wisconsin HOPE Lab, the nation's only translational research laboratory seeking ways to make college more affordable. She is best known for her innovative research on food and housing insecurity in higher education, having led the three largest national studies on the subject, and for her work on making public higher education free. She is the recipient of the William T. Grant Foundation's Faculty Scholars Award and the American Educational Research Association's Early Career Award, and in 2016 POLITICOMAGAZINE named her one of the top 50 people shaping American politics. Her latest book, Paying the Price: College Costs, Financial Aid, and the Betrayal of the American Dream (University of Chicago, 2016), is an Amazon best-seller and a 2018 winner of the Grawemeyer Award, and has been featured on the Daily Show with Trevor Noah, in The New York Review of Books, and on C-SPAN's Book TV, among other venues. The Chronicle of Higher Education calls her "a defender of impoverished students and a scholar of their struggles," and she is ranked 7th in the nation among education scholars according to Education Week.
