

LEHMAN
COLLEGE

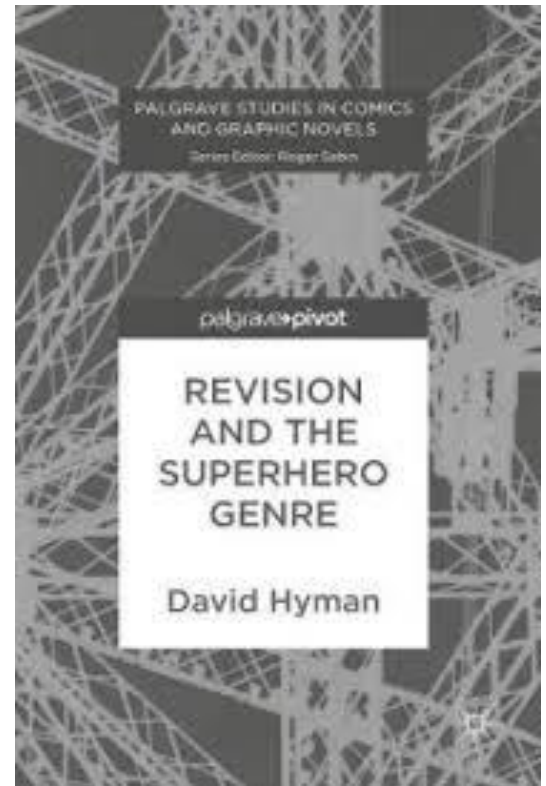

English
Leonard Lief Library present
A Reading and Discussion

Revision and the Superhero Genre by David Hyman

Revision and the Superhero Genre argues that superhero revision offers new perspectives on the theory and practice of revision in broader contexts - in particular, composition studies. Key developments in the history of superhero and composition revision reveal that both are deeply embedded in questions of narrative temporality. This book examines three unorthodox revision strategies: sideshadowing, excavation, and homodoxy.

David Hyman is Associate Professor of English at Lehman College.

Thursday, May 3, 2018

12:30 - 1:30 PM

Library - Treehouse Conference Room 317

RSVP by May 2nd:
Information:

<https://lehman.libcal.com/event/3920040>
Alison.LehnerQuam@lehman.cuny.edu, 718-960-7756

Light Refreshments will be served