

The Lehman Chamber Players

The Lehman Chamber Players will present a concert featuring works by Johannes Brahms, Claude Debussy and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart on Sunday, October 14 at 2:00 p.m. in the Music Building on the Lehman College campus. The concert is open to the public and admission is free; donations are welcome.

The Lehman Chamber Players for this concert include violinist Anton Miller, a critically acclaimed soloist and concertmaster who has appeared on stages around the US, Europe and Asia; violist Rita Porfiris, a recipient of Austria's prestigious Prix Mercure and a founding member of the Plymouth Quartet; cellist Hamilton Berry, who has performed with contemporary music orchestras like Novus NY and pop icons like Debbie Harry and Björk; and pianist Diana Mittler-Battipaglia, professor of music and choral director at Lehman College and co-founder of the Con Brio Ensemble.

The program for the upcoming Lehman Chamber Players concert will include the dramatic Piano Quartet No. 1 in G minor, Op. 25 by Brahms, the impressionistic Sonata for Cello and Piano in D minor by Debussy, and the melodious String Duo No. 1 in B-flat major for Violin and Viola, K. 424 by Mozart.
