

The Women's Studies Program

Lehman College – CUNY

Spring Lecture 2

“Portrait of a Life: Documentary Film and Women's Rights”

Image is Courtesy of Ghana Broadcasting Corp

Desiree Evans

Adjunct Professor of English Composition & Research at Lehman

This talk will examine the promise of documentary films in allowing women to live their experiences while telling their stories. The lecture will focus on the challenges women endure on the social, economic, cultural and political equality scales. It will also shine a light on issues affecting women's health and educational issues.

Wednesday, March 28, 2018

12:30 – 2:00 pm

Carman Hall, Room 221

For further information please call Professor Banoum, Director, at 718 960-1160