CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY AND SOCIAL WORK

CURRICULUM CHANGE

1. Type of Change: Change in prerequisite.

2. From: SOC 267: Social Statistics. 4 hours (2 lecture, 2 lab), 3 credits. Descriptive and inferential statistics; introduction to sampling and probability theory, non-parametric techniques, and experimental design. Extensive use of computer applications. PREREQ.: SOC(POL) 246 and SOC(POL) 247.

3. To: SOC 267: Social Statistics. 4 hours (2 lecture, 2 lab), 3 credits. Descriptive and inferential statistics; introduction to sampling and probability theory, non-parametric techniques, and experimental design. Extensive use of computer applications. PREREQ.: SOC (POL) 246.

4. Rationale: SOC(POL) 246 provides the necessary backgrounds in bi-variate analysis and SPSS and thus remains as a pre-requisite. This course does not require knowledge of the materials taught in SOC(POL) 247.

5. Effect outside department: None.

6. Date of departmental approval: 11/20/2002
