The extraordinary circumstances brought on by coronavirus have prompted CUNY to develop a flexible credit/no credit policy. Pending approval by the CUNY Board of Trustees, the policy will go into effect April 1, 2020.

If approved, students will have 20 days after they receive their grades to decide if they want to convert the letter grades they earn in their classes to Credit/No Credit (CR/NC) grading. The University will supply students with pertinent information about the impact of CR/NC on their financial aid and academic progress.

Students should consult with their academic and financial aid advisor to confirm if this option will still allow them to count the course towards their major/degree requirements, if credit is earned with a grade of P.

If a passing letter grade is earned, the student will receive a grade of ‘P’, credit for the course, and no impact on the GPA. If a failing grade is earned (F), the student will receive a grade of NP and no impact on the GPA.

Students must remain in compliance with Federal and State Satisfactory Academic Progress \(SAP\) guidelines.
