The Urban Male Leadership Program

I would like to offer my most sincere and encouraging welcome to all freshmen, transfer and continuing Lehman College students.

The Urban Male Leadership Program (UMLP) at Lehman College is dedicated to the progressive development and ultimate success of all Lehman College students with an emphasis on Black and Latino males in higher education. When students participate in this energetic program, they succeed. Students strengthen their academic skills, and develop personally and professionally.

Students are able to strengthen their “Passport to Success” by participating in the UMLP Circle of Support mentoring, Academic Intervention and Success counseling and workshops, leadership and personal development workshops, as well as the annual Leadership Retreats. Those who utilize these resources offered by the UMLP are Inducted into the program as UMLP Outreach Ambassadors at the Annual Induction and Awards Ceremony. To start participating in this exciting initiative, please stop by the UMLP office located in the Old Gym Building, Suite 302.

The UMLP is committed to “Bringing forth greatness...one student at a time.”

Welcome back into the 2013 Fall Semester fellow Urban Male Leaders and future leaders of tomorrow. I want to wish everyone a very successful and enriching semester and hope that you would find promising opportunities to open new doors for yourselves and others that will come after you. The UMLP has made me into a new and better person and has shown me that it is best to care about everyone and not just yourself. While being part of the program I have learned the true meaning of brotherhood and sisterhood. I hope that you will continue to form these great bonds as I have been able to and that we can all achieve a mutual understanding of each other.

I am pleased and honored to extend my most sincere welcome to all freshmen students, transfer students, and continuing Lehman College students.

The Urban Male Leadership Program at Lehman College is, in my opinion, the most important program at the College because it leads to the progressive development and ultimate success of all Lehman College students with an emphasis on black and Latino males in higher education. As a member of the UMLP Advisory Board at Lehman College, I am encouraged by the performance and dedication of our students, so much so that I initiated the first UMLP scholarship for their participating students in Spring 2013. Three scholarships were given to a deserving graduating senior, a sophomore and a junior. Students excel when they participate in this exciting program and they succeed.

Hispanic Heritage Month

Urban Male Leaders Honoring President Fernández at the 2013 Annual Induction and Awards Ceremony

As we commemorate Hispanic Heritage month in 2013, we acknowledge the richness of Hispanic culture and the contributions that Hispanic Americans have made to the United States. Americans whose roots stretch back to Spain, Mexico, the Caribbean, and Central and South America have brought with them diverse cultural and artistic expressions, which enhance the ever expanding mosaic that is the United States. While holding to their distinct cultures, these communities have also demonstrated their appreciation of the unique and singular American spirit, which inspires endurance in the face of obstacles and a strong work ethic to turn dreams into reality.

In many ways, Lehman College is an outstanding example of the results of such diversity. Our students trace their heritage to more than one hundred different nations, and work and learn together to achieve their personal best. Initiatives like the Urban Male Leadership Program attract the brightest and most determined of these students to serve the campus and the community, while at the same time helping them to acquire the skills needed to achieve academic success and their professional goals. Let us celebrate this month by recognizing the positive impact of Hispanic culture on our nation and by continuing to encourage curiosity about the wider world.

C. Alicia Georges, EdD
Chair and Professor
Nursing Department

It is a pleasure to bring greetings to the current students and potential students in the Urban Male Leadership Program here at Lehman College. The development of your leadership skills during the time you are part of this program will serve you well in the future. The present and emerging problems that we must address as a borough, city and nation require that you hone the skills you learn here so that you will be able to be the change agents that we will need in the future. Step out of your comfort zone and develop relationships with other students outside of your department. Speak up on issues that affect not only you as a student but also that will benefit your community. I know you will succeed, because you have taken the first step. I am honored to be part of this exciting endeavor at Lehman College.

Akwaba! Bienvenido! Dobro pojalovat! Karibu! Emedi-o! Yohkoso! Welcome to Lehman College! Join the Lehman College Urban Male Leadership Program (UMLP), which is focused on developing students' academic, social, personal and professional skills needed for success. The Program serves "all students...without regard to race, gender, national origin or other characteristics". Most notably, the UMLP makes it possible for our male students to work alongside their female peers. This practice of gender equity and inclusion should enhance their future roles as scholars, citizens, leaders and role models for younger generations.

The Urban Male Leadership Program

You have an opportunity for learning and for rising to your greatest potential. Look back, but only briefly to see how far you have come. Remember, there will be challenges ahead.

The Urban Male Leadership program is prepared to help you meet whatever challenges you face to facilitate your success. The faculty, administration, staff and your fellow students are available and eager to assist you with academic and non-academic matters including, but not limited to tutoring, advising, financial aid, career and personal counseling, health issues, as well as helping you negotiate the administrative regulations and structure of Lehman College. We all work together to help create a supportive and dynamic learning experience at the college.

As you take time out to enjoy the holiday season, reflect on what you have accomplished, and how much more you can accomplish by earning your college degree.

*José Magdaleno, Vice President
Division of Student Affairs*

As you move forward with your college career, it is important you have the support and guidance needed for you to achieve the level of success you desire. We at Lehman are grounded on the commitment of enriching the academic success of Lehman's students, through academic skill development, study groups and success workshops. It is my hope that you will take full advantage of these campus resources to increase your rate of successfully completing your academic journey, leading up to your graduation from Lehman College. I look forward to seeing you in Spring 2014 and wish you and your family a healthy, happy holiday season.

The Urban Male Leadership Program

The Urban Male Leadership Program is a collective of resources, focusing on the recruitment, retention, and graduation of college students. Students receive academic support, mentoring, and tutoring, while also participating in personal empowerment workshops, speaker series, peer study groups, alumni networking, leadership retreats, and discussion forums. We are dedicated to the success and progressive development of all Lehman students, with an emphasis on Black and Latino males. The program is open to all students and is committed to more than creating leaders; it is committed to changing lives.
