2002 CUNYAC / Burger King Championships

HAWKS SOAR TO SEVENTH HEAVEN

New York, NY - Hunter College used every ounce of energy to obtain its seventh straight CUNY Athletic Conference / Burger King Women's Volleyball Championship by defeating Lehman College 28-30, 30-27, 30-13, 25-30, 16-14 at home in the most exciting conclusion in the 21 years of the tournament. On the heels of the team's 16th title in the last 18 years, the Hawks (21-19) will now represent the league in the NCAA Division III Championship for the fourth consecutive time.

The 2002 edition of the conference final was the first to be extended to five games. Moreover, the deciding game went to extra points with CUNYAC Tournament Most Valuable Player Jezel Rodriguez notching the final kill. "Anytime you go into a fifth game, with an energetic crowd behind you, the victory is even sweeter," said Hunter's fourth-year head coach Lauren Caiaccia.

Lehman (18-5) stunned the home crowd by taking the opening game, 30-28, despite trailing much of the time. Senior outside hitter Madelayne Garcia (New York, NY) had six kills in the first game to give the visitors from the Bronx much-needed optimism at the outset.

The home squad started the second game similarly to the first by taking an early lead and eventually gutting out a 30-27 win, evening the match at one game apiece. In the third game, Caiaccia adjusted her rotation so that Rodriguez (Bronx, NY), her senior setter, would serve first.

Rodriguez, the CUNYAC Player of the Year, responded with eight straight jump serves for an 8-0 Hunter lead. With four service aces during that span, Rodriguez continued her quest to rewrite the NCAA record book. The 5'6" DeWitt Clinton High School graduate now holds the NCAA career record for service aces (538), regardless of division, and set a new Division III record for aces in a season (181) as she nailed 24 over the course of the tournament.

"It wasn't until the beginning of my junior season that I really started to hit the jump serve consistently with force," said Rodriguez, who earned her second straight MVP award. "It's a great weapon that helps motivate my team and myself. I can't believe that I am number one all-time in the NCAA."

In the fourth game, Lehman fought back to take a 16-11 lead. After a tie at 22-22, the Lightning stormed back in front to win 30-25. "We were able to focus back well in the fourth game," said third-year Lehman head coach Junior Garcia. "Our system of changing things up worked again and I thought that we had the momentum going into the fifth."

In the deciding game, there were six straight ties at the start before Hunter managed an 8-6 lead at the changing of sides on a kill by freshman outside hitter Meital Ben-Tovim (Hod-Hasharon, Israel). With an 11-8 lead in hand, Rodriguez nailed another jumper for a commanding 12-8 lead. Lehman bounced back once again, finally tying the game at 14 on a kill by senior outside hitter Sakeena Esteves (Bronx, NY).

Fittingly, after another Ben-Tovim kill to made the score 15-14, Rodriguez poked the ball in the corner to clinch the title. Rodriguez finished the match with a triple-double of 22 kills, 42 assists, and 20 digs. Ben-Tovim, who continued to play after chipping a tooth in the first game, tallied 18 kills and 16 digs while classmate Mei Kimberly Zhu (Corona, NY) added 16 kills and 15 digs for the Hawks.

Esteves, a three-time all-star in both volleyball and softball, was courageous in fighting off a knee injury sustained in the quarterfinals two days earlier to collect 17 kills and 12 digs. Garcia totaled a match-high 25 kills along with 18 digs to lead the Lightning while Fortes, despite a strained calf, netted 18 kills. Sophomore setter Esmeralda Camacho (New York, NY) contributed 55 assists and 12 digs.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

Hawks Go Five Games In NCAA Loss

Rochester, NY - For the fourth consecutive year, the Hunter College women's volleyball team earned an NCAA Division III Championship Tournament berth. The Hawks (22-22), the #6 seed in the New York Bracket, faced #3 seed Oneonta State (31-13) on the campus of #1 Nazareth College in Rochester, New York.

The Hawks fought long and hard in their first round match against Oneonta State and took a two-set lead. Oneonta State called upon its experience and depth to eventually rally and take the next three sets. The final scores were 26-30, 26-30, 31-29, 30-22, 15-12 in favor of Oneonta State. CUNYAC Player of the Year Jezel Rodriguez (Bronx, NY) led the Hawks for the final time in her four-year career with 17 kills, 33 digs, 35 assists, and a quartet of aces. She wraps up her stellar volleyball career with 1028 kills, 2365 assists, 1715 digs, and 550 aces. The 550 aces in her career and 193 this year are both national records. Freshmen Meital Ben-Tovim added 18 kills and Mei Kimberly Zhu netted 10 kills, while sophomore Beth Tuccillo contributed 14 digs in the NCAA Tournament match.
