Lightning Sufran And Reyes Earn CUNY Softball Honors

Bronx, NY- The Lehman College women's softball team earned CUNY honors this week as junior Lucia Sufran was named the CUNY conference Player of the Week, while freshman Miguelina Reyes was named the conference's Rookie of the Week.

Sufran, the junior speedster hit .533 (8-for-15) and swiped three bases in Lehman's 3-2 week. The outfielder, who leads the country in stolen bases per game (1.29), hit safely in all five contests and is now hitting an impressive .431 this season. The Manhattan native went 3-for-6, scored three runs, and stole two bases in the conference sweep of John Jay (4/15/06). The Washington Irving graduate also went 4-for-7 in the doubleheader split with Old Westbury (4/12). In the field, she managed to gun down two runners at the plate and recorded a combined eight putouts and two assists in the doubleheader against John Jay.

"Lucia has been a consummate leader on this year's squad," said Lehman College head coach Kim Santoiemma. "Her ability to bat leadoff has set the tone for the rest of the line-up to bring her across the plate."

As for the rising freshman star, Reyes has continued her torrid pace at the plate, batting .733 (11-for-15) with a pair of homers and nine RBI's in Lehman's 3-2 week. The infielder went a combined 4-for-5 in the doubleheader versus Old Westbury (4/12), and had a double, triple, and a homer in the second game. The Bronx native went 3-for-4 with a homer and four RBI's in the opening game win against John Jay (4/15), and was 3-for-4 with the game-winning hit in the nightcap. She's now hitting a league-leading .607 with six homers and 27 RBI's.

The Lightning return to action this Saturday with a home contest against St. Joseph's College. The game is slated for a 12pm start, and admission is always free at Lehman College's South Field.
