

Early Childhood Special Education

Master of Science in Education

Graduate programs in special education are designed to develop competent, caring, and qualified special educators to teach diverse learners who present with disabilities in both inclusive and specialized urban settings. The programs' philosophical, conceptual, and instructional underpinnings derive from values and standards established by the Council for Exceptional Children (CEC) and the New York State Learning Standards, as well as the Lehman Urban Transformative Education (LUTE) framework, which recognizes difference and diversity as foundations for learning and teaching. The program works collaboratively with school personnel, parents, family and community members, and local community organizations to create humanistic, nurturing environments that are responsive to the needs of children in urban settings.

Admission requirements for the 36-credit Certification Program in Early Childhood Special Education for applicants who already possess New York State certification are listed below.

Program Requirements:

- 1) An earned GPA of 3.0 or higher through the first 18 credits of graduate study.
- 2) If conditions were placed on the initial matriculation involving additional course work, all conditions must be met on or before the completion of 18 graduate credits. In order to register for course work beyond 18 graduate credits, the student may be required to provide a 15- to 30-minute videotape of a lesson with a whole class as part of a performance evaluation. Students will receive appropriate feedback and concrete suggestions for improvement, where needed. Each student may be required to integrate feedback and demonstrate improvement on a second videotape to be presented prior to graduation.
- 3) Students must take and submit grades earned on the Special Education Content Specialty Test.
- 4) Candidates are eligible for internship certificate once they complete 50 percent of the graduate course work.

Extensions and Annotations to the Initial/Professional Certificate in Teaching Students with Disabilities:

- A Bilingual Extension to the Initial/Professional Certificate in Teaching Students with Disabilities is available by completing a 15-18 credit Bilingual Extension Module.
- A 12-credit Extension in Teaching Students Who are Gifted and Talented (EDS 725, EDS 726, EDS 727, and EDS 728) is available to any student who already holds an Initial/Professional Certificate as Teacher of Bilingual Early Childhood Special Education.
- The extension courses focus on the nature and needs of culturally and linguistically diverse gifted and talented students and on best practices for teaching students with these characteristics.
