

 LEHMAN
COLLEGE

East Dining Hall
Music Building
March 4th, 2015
2:30-5:00 PM

The Deaths of Eric Garner and Michael Brown

The Center for Human Rights and Peace Studies, the Department of Philosophy and the Department of Anthropology at Lehman College invite you to a panel discussion that explores the significance of recent events in Ferguson and Staten Island as well as the conflicting narratives presented by media outlets, politicians and state officials. This will also be an occasion to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the march that Martin Luther King led from Selma to Montgomery.

Guest Speakers

Candace McCoy, Professor of Criminal Justice, John Jay College & The Graduate Center

Frank Kirkland, Professor of Philosophy, Hunter College & The Graduate Center

Adeola Ogunkeyede, Litigation Supervisor, The Bronx Defenders

Harold Moy, Senior Agent

Kathy MacGowan and Paul Young, Director and Playwright of "Kentucky Cantata"

The symposium is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served.