

Sponsored by The Center for Human Rights & Peace Studies

&

The Department of Anthropology

- Refugee Lives at Risk/Citizen Rights Denied: Frontline Stories from Greece, Uganda, Central America and the Dominican Republic

Wednesday, November 4, 2015

11:00am to 2:00pm

East Dining Hall, Lehman College

Speakers:

"Notes from the Greek Border: Refugee Stories of Death and Survival on an Aegean Island"

Katerina Stefatos and Dimitris Papadopoulos (Lehman College and Columbia University)

"Denationalization in the Dominican Republic"

Aquiles Castro Arias (Autonomous University of Santo Domingo)

"Exploitation of Women Migrants in the Dominican Republic"

Rosanna Antonia Espinosa Santana (Human Rights Lawyer, Dominican Republic)

"The Price of Exile: Ugandan Refugees, Sexual Minority Rights, and the Politics of Identity"

Michael Bosia (St. Michael's College)

"21st Century Migration ~ Why are Central Americans Seeking Political Asylum?"

Victoria Sanford (Lehman College)

Special Guest: André-Michel Essoungou, Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) in New York

Discussants: Christa Salamandra & Stephanie Rupp (Lehman College)

Light lunch will be served

Faculty are encouraged to bring their classes

Free and Open to the Public

