

CUNY School of Journalism
Journalism, Communication, and Theatre
Leonard Lief Library present
Innovation

Fake News, Alternative Facts, and Misleading Information

Wednesday, April 19, 2017
12:30 - 2:00 PM
Library - Concourse Lab B27C

Directions to Lehman: <http://www.lehman.edu/about/maps-and-directions.php>

Please join Journalism and Library faculty for a hands-on workshop and multidisciplinary discussion exploring the current state of Fake News. Topics include teaching students how to critically evaluate information from websites, blogs, and social media.

PRESENTERS

Former Director of News Research at the New York Times, Barbara Gray oversees CUNY Graduate School of Journalism's Research Center.

Substitute Science Librarian Stacy Katz is investigating the ecosystem of textbook acquisition on students' time and whether it detracts from their ability to be successful.

Business Librarian Martha Lerski is collaborating on an Information Literacy project with the Department of Economics and Business.

New media instructor Christine McKenna is a multimedia producer and online editor. She has produced news sites for Discovery Channel, PBS, Time, Wall Street Journal, and WNYC.

Substitute Electronic Resources-Systems Librarian Sean O'Heir previously worked as a news researcher at the Daily News.

RSVP to: <https://innovation-fake-news.eventbrite.com>

Information: Rebecca.Arzola@lehman.cuny.edu, 718-960-8831

Lunch will be provided