

QUEER THEATER & PERFORMANCE SERIES

Artist Talk: Linda La

Linda La is an international, SAG-AFTRA performer, recording artist, writer, teacher, curator and more. From Burnside Ave in the Bronx, New York, her roots in American and Caribbean culture brought her to Vogue Ballroom where she shaped her experimental sound. She has been article'd in both AFROPUNK and The Fader. She has curated performances with New York Live Arts, VICE and more. A 2021 recipient of the New York State Proclamation Award, she also appears as Swan in the hit series finale of POSE on FX. Residing on Munsee-Lenape land, she continues servicing Black and Brown transgender communities as co-founder of The House of Transcendence. You can find her work streaming on all platforms at LINDALA and archived at the Brooklyn Museum.
