

LEHMAN
COLLEGE

Department of Middle and High School Education

The Evalyn and Stephen Milman Undergraduate and Graduate Scholarship for Innovation in Teaching

The Milman Scholarship provides opportunities for undergraduate and graduate candidates* in educator preparation programs to explore innovative ideas and strategies in learning how to effectively teach students in high-needs schools through the integration of arts.

Application deadline
September 30, 2026

APPLY NOW!

up to $5000

Students in the Department of MHSE can be undergraduate or graduate students in programs leading to initial NYS certification.*

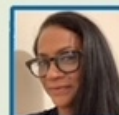

Each award recipient will be expected to:

- 1 Create a project that represents the integration of the arts into a particular area of study. The project will focus on supporting K-12 students and future leaders in developing knowledge and skills through the use of music, dance, drama, visual arts or another art medium.
- 2 By the end of the award semester, the recipient will present the artifact in a relevant course and share it with a professional organization as a resource to be disseminated to other educational professionals.
- 3 The Milman Scholar will make the presentation available as a resource for other candidates and teachers in different settings (e.g., a presentation at the SOE LUTE Reception, a framed display/video of the artifact in the SOE; or as a teacher resource on the MHSE website).
