

Lehman College Community Standards Reporting Guide

Use this guide to determine the appropriate reporting pathway for student concerns.

	<h2>1 Academic Integrity Policy Violation Report</h2>
	Purpose: Report an alleged violation of the Academic Integrity Policy.
	When to submit: When a student is suspected of academic dishonesty. Examples: Cheating on an exam or quiz, plagiarism, unauthorized use of AI or technology, unauthorized collaboration, falsifying academic records.

	<h2>2 Behavioral Intervention Team (BIT) Request</h2>
	Purpose: Connect a student with support and coordinated interventions. Not a disciplinary process.
	When to submit: When concerned about a student's well-being, behavior, or level of distress. Examples: Mental health concerns, suicidal ideation, significant behavioral changes, students in distress, wellness concerns requiring coordinated support.

	<h2>3 Code of Conduct Policy Violation Report</h2>
	Purpose: Report an alleged violation of the CUNY Student Code of Conduct.
	When to submit: When a student has allegedly violated college policy or engaged in misconduct. Examples: Threats or intimidation, harassment, physical altercations, theft or vandalism, alcohol/drug violations, hazing, disruptive behavior.

	<h2>4 General Community Concern Report</h2>
	Purpose: Document concerns affecting the campus community that does not fit another reporting pathway.
	When to submit: When the concern does not require Student Conduct or BIT intervention but should be brought to the College's attention. Examples: Community concerns, minor interpersonal conflicts, non-disciplinary disruptive issues, situations needing follow-up or referral.
